CINEMA ARTS PRESENTS
AJAMI

A powerful crime drama set on the streets of Jaffa's Ajami neighborhood — a melting pot of cultures and conflicting views among Jews, Muslims and Christians — and told through the eyes of a cross-section of the city's inhabitants: a young Israeli (Shahir Kabaha) fighting a criminal vendetta against his family, a Palestinian refugee (Ibrahmim Frege) working illegally to finance a life-saving surgery, a Jewish police detective (Eran Naim) obsessed with finding his missing brother, and an affluent Palestinian (Scandar Copti) dreaming of a future with his Jewish girlfriend. As their stories intersect — and the film's narrative shifts back and forth in time — we witness a dramatic collision of different worlds and the tragic consequences of enemies living as neighbors.

Join us at Landmark Bethesda for this award winning movie. Movie starts promptly at 10 AM doors open at 9:30 AM. The film will be followed by a discussion led by local film critic Stan Levin. Tickets are $15 each.
