Luncheon Freed Youth Wing

12:30 p.m.

Guest: Rabbi Joshua Burrows, Cantor Gabi Arad and Noa Burrows

Rabbi Burrows and his family will leave Washington Hebrew Congregation at the end of June and move to Roslyn, New York, where Gabi will serve as the Cantor at Temple Sinai in Roslyn. We are sorry to lose Rabbi Burrows and he will leave a lasting impression that we will not forget. During his 3 years with us, he touched all of us. Many of you have shared Friday night services with him. He also taught at the Wednesday morning study group, the early Torah on Saturday morning, and the Brotherhood study group on two Friday mornings a month. In addition to these duties, you all know he fulfilled the other obligations required of a rabbi in an excellent manner.

I hope you will all join me at this luncheon to express our gratitude to him and his family for his dedication to Washington Hebrew Congregation. We all wish Rabbi Burrows and his family the best of everything at their new Congregation.

Please note: This is the last luncheon until Monday, October 20th, 2008. Have a wonderful summer with your family and friends

Don't wait—make your reservation today for what promises to be an interesting luncheon. Please send a check for $12.00 per person payable to WHC Prime Timers, to Jean Klieger, 3140 Oliver Street, NW, Washington D.C. 20015. Questions, contact Jean at 202-362-4691.

Please note: The $12.00 charge is for Prime Timers members ONLY.

Guest charge is $15.00.

WE WILL CELEBRATE JUNE BIRTHDAYS AT THE LUNCHEON WITH A SPECIAL CAKE

Shalom
