

New for Washington Hebrew Congregation 11th and 12th graders!

Civil Rights Journey

February 18-21, 2010

Spend an unforgettable weekend with friends from your Confirmation class as we visit Atlanta, GA and Birmingham, Montgomery and Selma, AL to see some of the most important sites in the history of the Civil Rights Movement. We'll talk about the role of the Jewish community and the impact of individuals who made a difference.

Highlights include:

- The Rosa Parks Museum
- Visit to the Southern Poverty Law Center
- Martin Luther King Center
- Services at the Edmund Pettus Bridge
- And much, much more!

We will be joined on this trip by a group of students from Temple Shaaray Tefila, a Reform congregation in New York City. We will also have the opportunity to spend time with teens from the Reform congregation in Montgomery, AL.

Space is limited! The trip will leave Thursday after school and return Sunday evening. The final cost will be determined by the total number of participants and airfare at the time of booking flights. Scholarships and fundraising opportunities are available. The maximum cost of the trip (NOT including flight) will be $600.

To reserve a place on this trip please send a $200 deposit (fully refundable until November 1) to Ira Miller, 11810 Falls Road, Potomac, MD 20854.
