In Memoriam

2023

One of the primary themes at this moment of the Jewish year is the cycle and continuity of life, which can be found in the book of Ecclesiastes. It reminds us that "a season is set for everything, a time for every experience under heaven" (Ecclesiastes 3:1). The text notes the vanity, struggle, and challenges that face humanity at different stages of life. The cycle of Torah reading moves from end to beginning, mirroring the cycle of life. We read the last lines of Torah with sadness as we learn that Moses' life is coming to an end. And yet, despite the bittersweet conclusion of one part of the journey, without pause, the cycle is renewed and we start the process all over again. That cycle is continuously moving us forward.

It is that same cycle that brings us here today to remember the names of our loved ones. Each name brings forth a memory, a moment shared, a love cherished. We have come here to fulfill the responsibility bestowed on each generation — to remember those who came before us, whose names we bear. We are the carriers of the story, and we must continue to tell the stories of our loved ones we have come here to remember and honor. For their story is an indelible part of our story. Each of us carries names and memories in our hearts on this Yom Kippur, as we do each and every day. Rabbi Jacob Philip Rudin captured the essence of Yizkor: "To ask of death that it never come is futile, but it is not futility to pray that when death does come for us, it may take us from a world one corner of which is a little better because we were there."

The book of Ecclesiastes expresses the fleeting nature of time, as we read in a selection of the well-known verses of chapter 3:

To every thing there is a season, and a time to every purpose under the heaven:

A time to be born, and a time to die; a time to plant, and a time to pluck up that which is planted...

A time to weep, and a time to laugh; a time to mourn, and a time to dance...

A time to love, and a time to hate; a time for war, and a time for peace.

Peace, wholeness, can be so difficult to find in the wake of the loss of a loved one. Yet Judaism teaches us that we must pursue peace; from the moment we leave the grave site, we are directed, even urged, to go forward in peace, to life. We don't give up or abandon our responsibilities. Rather, our love for those whose names we find on these pages encourages us to pursue our appointed tasks and live our lives in ways that will bring honor to the memory of those who came before us.

On this day of memory, in the midst of a period of reflection, may we dedicate ourselves to the memory of our loved ones, with the commitment that we will leave this world better than we found it, and that we will strengthen our community for all those generations who will follow.

Zichronam livracha,

May their memories ever be for a blessing,

Rabbi Susan N. Shankman

YAHRZEIT NOTIFICATION & MEMORIAL PLAQUE REQUEST

Memorial plaques are a lasting tribute in memory of your loved ones. Bearing the names and dates of passing of people permanently revered, these plaques are placed on the Memorial Wall in the Hertzberg Kaddish Lobby during the week of yahrzeit observance. On all other days, they are enshrined in Gordon Archives.

We would like to ensure that all Temple members receive yahrzeit notices for their loved ones. For more information about memorial plaques or to make a notification request, please contact Debbie Heller at dheller@whctemple.org, 202-362-7100.

WHAT IS YIZKOR?

In Judaism, mourning is both private and public. When we visit a grave or observe a yahrzeit — the anniversary of a person's death — we generally do so in private. Yizkor is the public observance for the community to come together to remember its loved ones. Yizkor means "may God remember," and it is the name of the memorial service that we hold at Temple four times a year: on Yom Kippur day, Simchat Torah/Sh'mini Atzeret morning, the last day of Passover, and the morning of Shavuot.

Originally, Yizkor was recited only on Yom Kippur. Its primary purpose was to remember the deceased by committing tzedakah (charity) funds on the theory that the good deeds of the survivors elevate the souls of the departed. It also enhanced the chances for personal atonement by doing a deed of loving-kindness. Since the Torah readings on the last day of the pilgrimage festivals (the holidays of Sukkot, Passover, and Shavuot) also mention the importance of donations, Yizkor was added to these holiday services as well.

Dating back to medieval Germany, there was a custom for each community to read a list of its martyrs at the Yizkor service. The practice was eventually expanded to include the names of other members of the community who had died. Today, most synagogues distribute a list with the names of those who are being remembered by congregants.

The Yizkor service itself consists of four parts:

- A series of readings and prayers, recited and chanted, that sets the mood for the solemn service.
- Passages that individuals read silently recalling the deceased. There are passages for a departed father, mother, husband, wife, son, daughter, other relatives, friends, and Jewish martyrs. During the service, each person reads the passages that are pertinent to them.
- The memorial prayer for the deceased, El Male Rahamim (God Full of Compassion), is chanted by the cantor.
- A special prayer, Av HaRahamim (Ancestor of Mercies), probably composed as a eulogy for communities destroyed in the Crusades of 1096, is recited by the congregation as a memorial for all Jewish martyrs. Some also add Psalm 23.

Although in its traditional structure Yizkor does not include the recitation of the Mourner's Kaddish (the memorial prayer in praise of God), many congregations do add this as the climax of the service.

WHEN IS YIZKOR?

Judaism provides many opportunities to remember and honor those who are no longer with us. Traditionally, those who have lost a dear loved one recite Kaddish every day for one year after the passing of a spouse, child, parent, or sibling. We not only recite Yizkor prayers on Yom Kippur, the Day of Repentance, we also have an opportunity to recite Yizkor during the major festivals of Sukkot, Passover, and Shavuot.

In addition to the Yom Kippur Yizkor service, Yizkor services will also be held at Temple at 10:30 am on the following days during 5784: Saturday, October 7, 2023 (Sukkot); Monday, April 29, 2024 (Passover); and Wednesday, June 12, 2024 (Shavuot).

If you have experienced the loss of a loved one this year, we hope you will join us and find comfort at these additional services where your loved ones' names will be read, and you will have a chance with your community to simply, humbly remember.

HELP DURING A TIME OF LOSS A GUIDE FOR JEWISH FUNERAL PRACTICES

The loss of a loved one is often unexpected, leaving the grieving family feeling unprepared in the days following the death. In response to families who need guidance, the clergy have created A Guide for Jewish Funeral Practices to help members of our congregation obtain a deeper understanding of the Jewish approach to life and death. The Guide addresses the customs that have evolved throughout the centuries concerning death, burial rites, and mourning procedures. Because we are a Reform congregation, the booklet discusses practices and traditions with the understanding that in the spirit of the Reform Movement, we do not dictate observance, but rather encourage the individual to make informed decisions. We suggest that our members read through the traditions and rituals in the Guide, share their desires and feelings with close relatives, and contact a member of the WHC clergy team with any questions.

When the need arises, Washington Hebrew Congregation will be here to help you and your family through a difficult time. If you would like a copy of A Guide for Jewish Funeral Practices, please contact Marsha Humphries, mhumphries@whctemple.org or 202-895-6303, or visit whctemple.org/Life-Cycle.

BEREAVEMENT SUPPORT

Grief can be devastating. Basic beliefs are challenged, emotions can feel out of control, and energy is depleted. We know that shared experience and education can be helpful during bereavement. Washington Hebrew Congregation's Bereavement Support Group can provide mutual support and education to those who have experienced a loss during the last 18 months.

Limited in size, the program recognizes each person's unique way of grieving and provides a confidential and respectful environment for the bereaved to explore their feelings, begin working through complex issues of loss, and start to heal.

If you are interested in participating, please contact Marsha Humphries, mhumphries@whctemple.org or 202-899-6303.

Washington Hebrew Congregation is grateful for the opportunity to provide support to its members who may be in need during their time of grief. Our Bereavement Support Group is generously sponsored by the Edlavitch-Tyser Family Relations Forum.

'This is a time we gather to remember someone who gave meaning to our lives. This is the time we recall the bonds that hold us, the love shared, the memories that sustain us.'

Founded by visionaries of Washington Hebrew Congregation, the Garden of Remembrance is the area's only community-based, non-profit Jewish cemetery, honoring the sacred rituals of burial for every branch of Judaism. As of the Jewish New Year, twenty-eight Washington area Jewish congregations have joined Washington Hebrew Congregation in reserving sections in our Garden. Individual and family sites are available, ensuring a place for everyone in accordance with their personal wishes.

When you purchase family burial spaces in the Washington Hebrew Congregation section at the Garden of Remembrance, your thoughtfulness will echo from generation to generation.
